

Namo Buddhaya! Children's program - 05

Dear meritorious children,

Today, we're going to learn about the 5th quality of the Supreme Buddha.

The 5th quality of the Supreme Buddha is 'LOKAVIDU'

- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the hell world and escaped from hell forever.
- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the animal world and escaped from the animal world forever.
- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the ghost world and escaped from the ghost world forever.
- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the human world and escaped from the human world forever.
- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the heavenly world and escaped from heavenly worlds forever.
- The Supreme Buddha understood everything about the Brahma world and escaped from Brahma world forever.

In this way, the Supreme Buddha realized everything about every world and became fully freed from being reborn in any of those worlds.

That is why our great teacher, Supreme Buddha is known as "LOKAVIDU"

Dear meritorious children,

During the Supreme Buddha's time, there was a young man named Nandiya who lived in India.

He built a beautiful hall and offered it to the Supreme Buddha and maha Sangha.

A few days after that great offering, Moggallana Bhanthe went to the heavenly world.

The heavenly world is very familiar to Moggallana bhanthe as he always visits as a habit.

On that day, he saw a new, beautiful mansion which he had not seen before.

So, he stopped there. Many beautiful goddesses came out from that mansion and worshipped him.

Moggallana Bhanthe asked, "who's the owner of this mansion?"

The goddesses replied, "Bhanthe, the owner of this mansion is Nandiya. But he is still in human world. When you go back, please tell him that we're waiting for him. Please ask him to give up the human world and come to the heavenly world."

People who collect merit are the ones who get heavenly mansions like this.

So meritorious children,

If you collect merit you can also receive a beautiful heavenly mansion, beautiful heavenly clothes, beautiful heavenly jewellery, and marvelous divine luxuries.

So try to do meritorious actions from your childhood if you too would like to be reborn in the heavenly world.

Our next program will be held on Sunday the 26th November
